

CODE OF CONDUCT

The goal of the Home Court Program is to create a positive and productive environment and experience for all participants. Each player has the responsibility to actively participate in a respectful manner while being supportive of the coaches and other participants. To ensure the integrity of the program, Home Court has the right to dismiss any child whose behavior disrupts the positive experience of the other participants. Children who are dismissed have the opportunity to return to future programs when they are able to follow the standards set forth by this code of conduct.

WAIVER FORM

WAIVER: I, the parent/guardian of _____, hereby give my approval for participation in any and all activities of Home Court's Camp. I assume all risks and hazards for the conduct of the activities and transportation to and from the activities. I do hereby further release, absolve, indemnify and hold harmless Home Court, sponsors and supervisors, and/or all of them, in cases of injury to my child. I hereby waive all claims against the organizers, officers, sponsors or any other supervisors appointed to them. I hereby request and permit any hospital emergency department physician, any other physician designated and any hospital personnel to render any medical and/or surgical treatment that he/she may require in my absence. I further understand Home Court does not provide primary accident insurance.
